NEWSLETTER APRIL 2007

QUICK UPDATE

Hi There! I have recently arrived back from Brisbane where I got to see a lot of the new goodies that were released at CHA in January... I felt like I had died and gone to Scrapbookers Heaven!! It was amazing. My luggage was SO heavy with ALL of the new releases and classes... it was just unbelievable! It gave me plenty of inspiration to teach again! My highlight (which was very hard to pick) was definitely classes with Lance from Rusty Pickle. He is an amazing teacher and a great guy to boot!! We were VERY lucky and got to have lunch with him on the day we went shopping at the warehouse... it was GREAT!! Hence - you will see lots of nice new products from Rusty Pickle in store as well as LOTS of samples to show you how to use their great products.

Finally - I went to Brisbane with two WONDERFUL ladies from 'Cow Town'. Kareena who owns 'The Scrappy Cow' and Heather from her design team. For those of you that haven't been to Cowaramup (about 7kms out of Margaret River) it is a must see little town, and while you are there you MUST drop into Kareena's scrapping shop 'The Scrappy Cow'. It is a little off the beaten track, but well worth the visit. We have VERY similar taste, so if you love SFTH you will love The Scrappy Cow! Tell Kareena that I sent you!! Thanks for putting up with me in that 'little' room - with barely enough room to swing a cat - let alone a Cow!! :-)

Make sure you drop in soon to check out all of the new stuff that is coming in - you won't be disappointed. Look forward to seeing you in store soon! Happy Scrappin!!
